CASUALTIES.

LOST AN ARM.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.
GALINA, Jan. 10.—Frank Dubois, aged 17 years, sustained injuries this afternoon while working at a planer in the Old Chair Factory in this city, necessitating amputation of the left arm, near the shoulder, the operation being performed by Dr. R. F. Fowler. The hand was caught between the two cylinders and the arm drawn in up to the middle of the shoulder, literally cutting it in two.

BAD WEATHER AT SEA.

New York, Jan. 10.—The Inman steamship City of New York, from Liverpool, which was one week overdue, arrived here this morning. She reports a continuation of the southwest and west-northwest gales and very high seas the first nine days out. Her forward bridge was carried away, and other serious damage was done to the ship. Some seamen were badly injured. Steamer are plying the Atlantic at one one-third the ordinary speed.

TORNADO.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 10.—A Commercial special from Zanesville, O., tells of a destructive tornado which passed over the village of Taylorsville last night, destroying the house of John Kusman, an unfinished building, and killing, according to G. W. Sherman, and seven other citizens. Sherman escaped with his life. The Marquis of Waterford is recovering from the effects of the tornado.

GERMANY.

New York, Jan. 10.—A London dispatch says there is a rumor about town to the effect that the Government is in possession of starting and alarming news from India, which it is endeavoring to keep secret until Cabinet Council can be held to consider it. Mohammed Jan is believed to have been reinforced by several thousand of Shere Ali's regulars, from whom the cannon now mounted at Ghuzni were probably obtained. He has assumed a title and military appearance, and, collecting the resources in the name of Musa Khan whom he pretends to regard as a rightful and reigning Amir, though temporarily kept out of his Capital by the forcible occupation by the British. He has sent emissaries to Turkestan, commissioned to stir up the people there to engage in military warfare upon the British as a common enemy, and the probabilities are said to be that, if he succeeds in his purpose as a soldier and commander-in-chief of Turkistan, he will have no inconsiderable success in raising men to join him in Ghuzni or to begin hostilities on a home basis.

TITLE OF CHIEFS.
St. Petersburg, Jan. 10.—The Invisible Russ says: "Server Khan and Ishak Khan, cousins of Abdul Rohman Khan, pretender to the Afghan throne, who were residing at Samarcand, have fled across the frontier."

SOCIAL REFORM.

The Prince of Wales has just inaugurated another social reform. Every year since half past three has been the fashionable hour during the past season, and, as nobody came or was expected to come till 3, all operations were out of the question.

The Prince of Wales has now determined to introduce something approximating to the French system. Dinner is served at 8 instead of 9 o'clock. It is hoped that this will work a change during the next season, for nothing can be more destructive of theatrical prosperity and social enjoyment than hours protracted by the arrival of the guests.

MAFFIA.

It is not believed that Gen. Roberts will call an adjutant-general to his headquarters before spring. The difficult nature of the road between the Capital and fortress will of itself preclude this during the winter, rendering it impossible to travel so far as from Calais as from Gandaria, from which point the contemplated expedition is for the present abandoned, although the distance is only about 100 miles.

The rumor that Abdul Karim is raising a force in Kohistan for Mohammed Jan is regarded as well authenticated. The fact that, while Ghuzni is under martial law, the center of military operations of the insurgents, and is the strongest fortress in the country, no efforts are proposed to win back the city, is held here to be significant of the existing situation of the British.

Mr. Glazeborne promises his attention to any plan but does not favor extrication, even with the help of the Committee, and, as he entered a blind shooting the horns of the Marquis of Waterford is recovering from his ugly spell.

GERMANY.

London, Jan. 10.—A Berlin correspondent says: Krupp's gun factory at Essen has received considerable orders lately, America having given considerable commissions.

BERLIN, Jan. 10.—A Krupp's establishment, Essen, the prices are in general about 50 to 60 per cent higher than three months ago, and most likely Krupp will have to engage several hundred additional workmen. The present force is engaged up to the end of 1881, and many orders had been refused. Russia and China particularly figure in the orders for war material.

It is said that Austria and Germany are about to communicate with St. Petersburg regarding the concentration of Russian troops in Poland. If the reply is unsatisfactory they will adopt defensive measures.

BELGIUM PROBABLY TO DIE DEATH-DED.

BIG SNOW-STORM.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—For forty-eight hours ending this morning a snow-storm has raged in the Sierra Nevada, along the line of the Central Pacific Railroad. Snow fell to the depth of eight or ten feet, and the wind drifted the cuts full. Three snow-slides occurred between Emigrant Gap and Cisco, crushing sheds and blocking the line. The tracks were resting at Samaria, and had to be raised to the top of the washed beds. Five hundred feet of shodding west of Tamarack Station is destroyed. The overland passenger-train from the East and the Virginia fast train which left this city yesterday are at Goldoni. The passenger-train from the East, due here at noon to-day, is of course delayed at Truckee waiting for the blockade to be raised. A large force of men and snow-plows are at work removing the snow from the washes above. The snow is subsiding, and it is believed that the road will be cleared to-night, if no further slides occur.

COTTON MARKET.

The cotton market has been much affected by bad weather, but the coal and iron industries an improvement is noticed, and an upward tendency in wages.

COTTON IN THE TRANSVAAL.

continues to excite anxiety. Last week Sir Garnet Wolseley telegraphed that he should not believe any stories circulated about the Boer troubles, and yet during the week three of the leading men of the ex-Transvaal Republic have been arrested and are to be tried for high treason. These are A. W. Pretorius, President of the Republic, Paul Kruger, President of the Republic, and Jan Bok, the noted leader with the forces of the Boers, and Piet Joubert, ex-Vice-President, formed the delegation which came to Downing street about five months ago bringing the petition from the Boers for the recognition of Transvaal as an independent state, but were soon disengaged. These leaders have always counseled their people to abstain from violence, believing up to the recent declaration of Sir Garnet Wolseley, their demands would be listened to and their Republican independence be restored. The arrest of the three men for "high treason" is generally condemned, and now the historian Troubridge condemns in the broadest terms the conduct of the master, saying England has annexed a country as large as France belonging to Dutch Boers, and broken her faith with the Republic. It is now felt that the intervention of a world-wide people will have the effect of calling the attention of the Government to the injustice committed. It is significant that the official position under the Government of Transvaal.

is on foot between Sir Garnet Wolseley, Commander-in-Chief of the British Forces in Africa, and Sir Garnet Wolseley, now the Telegraph. Sir Garnet charges the famous scoundrel with falsehood and exaggeration in letters written from his headquarters, and has denounced the conduct of some British soldiers in Transvaal. He repeated the statements of his predecessor, that he had driven out all the cattle yards, broken down all the church pulpits, and stole even the church clock. He said he had received £10,000 from the Transvaal, which he never received.

INDIANS.

INDIANS RAID IN TEXAS.

The following report from one of the officers of the volunteer service relative to the raids of Indians in Texas, and the probability of renewed outbreaks, was received at midnight yesterday:

YESTERDAY, Jan. 10.—Gen. J. B. Jones, Adjutant-General, Austin, Tex.—DEAR SIR: I thought that a report of our scouts about the Indians in Texas, and the probability of their attacking us again, would be of interest to you.

After Maj. Morrow's defeat, the Indians, probably, were scattered in various parts of the state, but were collected in the Cimarron and Colorado mountains, a group of peaks rising to 8,000 feet above the level of the ocean, with a spindrift water, grass, and plenty of game, and probably intended to winter, but were forced to leave the mountains, and were scattered in various parts of the state.

The Indians, however, were not scattered in the Cimarron and Colorado mountains, but were collected in the Cimarron and Colorado mountains, and probably intended to winter, but were forced to leave the mountains, and were scattered in various parts of the state.

the elevators are full to the entire extent of

has been considerable talk of a grain

Bio Grande Road from building their railroad to the Supreme Court of the United States in April last. The appeal was heard, and the Court reviewed the decision in a long opinion to which the mandate subsequently granted. In the opinion the Court decided that the injunction issued against the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad should be dissolved and an injunction restraining further operations by the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Road issued. They also directed the Court below to ascertain whether any part of the canon was or had been alleged too narrow to permit more than one roadway. That if this were the fact, the Court should order the successful party to permit any other railroad to pass over its track at that particular narrow portion of the canon, which it had been extended about 6,000 feet, and, finally, that the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad should be required by the Court above to compensate the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe
for the cost of the injunction.

In accordance with this decision, it was resolved that on and after Monday the 10th

BAR ASSOCIATION.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE AMENDMENT OF THE LAW.

The Chicago Bar Association held its annual meeting yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, President King in the chair. The attendance was decidedly light.

The Board of Managers, through Gen-

Silis, reported that they had audited during the year bills to the amount of $300, which did not include the amount paid for rent, which were paid through the Treasurer's hands.

There were two couples whose names were not mentioned, each case reaching $20.

Mr. Gorgin suggested that the new method of working upon still-tried landlords by means of prayer might be tried.

The Chairman of the Board Committee had

$150 in his possession which might be used for the benefit of the Moreland landlords. [Laughter.]

"I wouldn't like to have the rent reduced in any such manner," said Mr. Gorgin,

but the Chats, "that it won't be reduced,

such as a master and other." [Laughter.]

"Did I understand you, Mr. Gorgin?"

"Yes, sir, I am going to state that I know a gentleman who would be glad to have the lease off of our house."

"He wants the place for our bank."

It was decided, after some further talk,

that several members were delinquent in the matter of dues, and suggested that it would be well to try to collect them. During the meeting six of the members of the Association—Moses Barnum, Dickey,

Kieckhefer, Moran, Tully, and Upton—had been elevated to the Bench, and Stephen A. Goodwin and Ingwell Oleson had passed away.

The Treasurer, Mr. F. Q. Hall, reported

balance on hand at date of last meeting $200; total, $1,200; cash on hand, $183.

He also submitted to the matter of unpaid dues,

and expressed a hope that the delinquents

would square up. The report was adopted.

Gen. Silis of the Committee to audit the Treasurer's accounts recommended that every thing be done for their rent.

The Association adjourned.

THE ANNUAL ELECTIONS

of officers resulted as follows:

President, Gen. L. N. Stiles; Vice-President, M. W. Fuller; and John S. Cooper;

General Secretary, F. Q. Hall; King, George

E. Adams, S. C. Judd (to fill vacancies caused by the retirement of members); Comptroller,

Adams; H. D. Doollittle, Jr., F. F. W. S.

Brayton; and J. Bradwell (to fill vacancies caused by the retirement of members).

On taking the chair, Gen. Stiles made one or two brief speeches, returning his thanks for the votes given him, and expressing a mild regret that he hadn't made a speech

he had previously prepared when he left the office to which he had been elected, to the office to which he had been called. [Laughter.]

He referred briefly to the movement of unpleasant differences in the past year or more, but stated it was rather hardening. In conclusion, he suggested that it would tend to make the Association's meetings more interesting.

There were more of the socials featuring in them, in other words, they could get together and have a while, break bread together, eat a little fruit, and possibly

a little coffee. [Laughter.]

The Committee on Amalgamation of the Law,

through Elliott Adams, submitted the following report, which was made the special subject of the next regular meeting:

"First.—That it should be passed to carry into effect the 12th Art. of the Constitution of this

"THE BANKER'S DAUGHTER."

In the organization of the company now playing "The Banker's Daughter" at Hooley's.

Mr. J. W. Collier has displayed excellent judgment. It is no easy task for a manager to select people to fill the roles of that work satisfactorily, since they have been made similar to Chicago play-goers by such men as Charles R. Thorne, Parsells, Lemoyne, Folk, Stoddard, Lingham, and such women as Miss Mary Harrison, Miss Ella May, Mrs. E. J. Phillips, and Miss Sophie Cowell. Representing the players are these artists, to say that the troupe under the management of Mr. Collier adequately present "The Banker's Daughter" is to award them high praise. It would be absurd to say that there are no shortcomings in their work, but these shortcomings may be overlooked in the excellence of the entire presentation. The people have all been thoroughly drilled in the routine of the parts, much attention has been given the setting of the play, which while not quite so elaborate in its original production, satisfies all requirements. Large audiences have attended each performance during the week, and doubtless it will continue as many during the second half of the engagement, which will close next Saturday. In again alluding to the cast, we have to thank Mr. Louis James for his assumption of John Streltoho, the commendable features of which are naturalness, manliness. In his first scenes his utterance, gesture, and mannerisms are those of a gentleman, and at the same time finely illustrate the practical and the honest nature of the character. In the second act he is the honest, happy, and unsuspecting husband. His strong scenes, of course, is that in the fourth act—in the boudoir of his wife to which he has led her after the duel and after the discovery of Lillian's love for Horatio. There are two points in this which we imagine Mr. James could easily make his own. The first is when she stands over his wife and questions Lillian for his love for Horatio. The interrogations should come from him, as if they were put to him, as if they were froming asked.

Then, as if they were not voluntary asked.

mann Westley, William Gill, Charley Drew, Mr. George Loesch, the musical director, and Mr. F. Wallack, the manager. The four last mentioned gentlemen have an interest in the piece, which they say has been improved since its production in this city.

A few days ago the J. F. Wallack company went the way of all flesh. J. F. is up again and has organized a troupe comprising Mrs. Wallack, Randolph Murray, Charles Coon, N. M. Hart, Miss Louise, Mrs. Nellie Thorne, Helen Creswick, and Ed Howard. This organization will try its luck at Joliet to-morrow evening.

"Hooley" and the excellent "Surprise," personal to Mr. Billings, will be here this night. The troupe will reach here about noon from Milwaukee. "Hooley" will give but one performance. "Surprise" was given in Chicago last year, instead of twelve, forty apes. There is nothing small about "Hooley."

The severity of the weather at Paris has had a disastrous effect on many of the theatres. Several have closed their doors.

When Chicago has the "Passion Play" it will have instead of twelve, forty apes. There is nothing small about "Hooley."
